

Thinking of teaching?

Are you a graduate or about to graduate with a good Honours degree?

The Universities of Brighton and Sussex are proud to offer a range of exciting routes into teaching for this September, including the new School Direct programme.

School Direct and PGCEs are offered across a range of phases and subjects, including Mathematics, Chemistry, Physics, Modern Foreign Languages, English, Computer Science, RE, Economics, Music, Geography, Dance, Design & Technology and Primary.

You could be eligible to receive a tax free bursary of up to £25,000, or earn a salary while you train to teach.

To find out more, join us at our co-hosted event in July where you can discuss vacancies with partner schools and meet tutors from both universities.

Date: Wednesday 2nd July

Time: 6-7.30pm

Location: Nevill Hall, Hove Park School,
Nevill Road, Hove BN3 7BN

To register for this event, email deped@brighton.ac.uk

To more information about courses, visit www.sussex.ac.uk/education/ite
www.brighton.ac.uk/education

University of Sussex
Education

University of Brighton

School of Education