Three Examination Tips Specific to this Subject

- Practise vocabulary as often as possible – doing 5-10 minutes of Memrise or Quizlet per day and building it into your daily routine is more effective long-term than doing 1 hour per week of vocabulary work
- Practise planning answers to the writing questions, and remember you must be able to understand the question and MUST answer all of the bullet points that are on the question or you will lose marks.
- Aim to involve the target language in your everyday life – this could be watching TV shows with target language audio and English subtitles, listening to radio or music from Spain, watching Youtubers who speak Spanish, or putting up posters or post-it notes around the home with vocabulary on. Seeing and hearing the target language on a daily basis is extremely valuable.
