- take responsibility for own professional development and duties in relation to school policies and practices;
- liaise effectively with parents and governors

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified.

Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.

PROGRESSION TO UPPER PAY SPINE

The above is the basic job description for all classroom teachers. Teachers will be expected to continue to develop throughout their careers. Progression to the Upper Pay Spine (threshold) is a reward for a range of good practice including performance in the classroom, and in order to continue to move onto UPS2 and UPS3, this high level of performance must be sustained. In the early years of a teaching career a classroom teacher will need to develop beyond these basic requirements in order to pass through the threshold. Below are some of the skills, attributes and attitudes that will need to be developed to move onto the Upper Pay Spine.

Core Requirements

- To contribute to the development of departmental and school policies
- To take lead responsibility for an aspect of the department or the school's work (this could even be leadership of a small subject), and develop plans and identify clear targets and success criteria for its development and/or maintenance

Planning, Teaching and Classroom Management

- Develop the capacity to reflect upon current practice and thus be able to understand clearly, and therefore apply, very effective classroom management, employ a wide range of teaching strategies and be able to target and support individual learning needs effectively
- Consistently maintain high levels of behaviour and discipline
- Demonstrate the ability to bring appropriate and consistent progress from most of the students taught across the age and ability range, and from a full spectrum of backgrounds
- To be able to manage effectively support staff and other adults in the classroom
- To show the ability to mentor trainee teachers.

Monitoring, Assessment, Recording and Reporting

- To be able to understand and manipulate performance data in order to evaluate students' progress and thereby set appropriate targets for improvement.

Other Professional Requirements

- To be knowledgeable of, and take account of, wider curriculum developments
- Incorporate, as appropriate, national strategies in all teaching
- To take responsibility for continued professional learning, undertaking personal development to enhance the teaching and learning of students, and then applying it successfully in the classroom, and subsequently sharing that with colleagues.

The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the statement of Conditions of Employment.

This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed as necessary as part of the appraisal process and it may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post.

Because of the nature of this job, if you are successful in your application you will be subject to a criminal record check from the Disclosure & Barring Service before the appointment can be confirmed. This will be done by means of applying for an 'Enhanced Disclosure'. Disclosures include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings as well as convictions, spent or unspent.

Every member of staff has a responsibility to safeguard and promote the welfare of children.

SUMMARY STATEMENT ON USE OF DISCLOSURE INFORMATION IN RECRUITMENT & SELECTION

Introduction

Thank you for applying for a position within Brighton & Hove City Council. You have applied for a post or voluntary work that falls under the definition of 'regulated position' under exemptions to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that a criminal conviction check (or disclosure) will be undertaken on any individual who is offered the post. Where appropriate (where the post involves working with children or vulnerable adults) details will also be checked against the Department of Health and Department for Education & Skills lists. These checks are undertaken by the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) only when a conditional offer of employment has been made but you will be asked during the recruitment process to declare any relevant information.

It is the intention of Brighton & Hove City Council not to discriminate unfairly against individuals on the basis of their previous offending history. Possession of a criminal record is not an automatic bar to obtaining employment or voluntary work.

The purpose of this Statement is to provide assurance to applicants that the information released in Enhanced Disclosures is used fairly and that sensitive personal information is handled and stored appropriately and kept for only as long as necessary.

Handling of Disclosure Information

Recipients of Disclosure Information at Brighton & Hove City Council will only disclose this information to the recruiting manager and Human Resources Manager. Unauthorised disclosure of any information provided by the DBS is an offence under Section 124 of the Police Act 1997.

Disclosure Information will be securely stored and will be retained for a maximum period of six months unless, in exceptional circumstances, formal written agreement of the DBS is obtained to retain them for a longer period. Brighton & Hove City Council as a Registered Body must comply with the DBS Code of Practice. All matters relating to the use of Disclosure Information will be undertaken in accordance with the DBS Code of Practice and Brighton & Hove City Council's Code of Practice on the Use of Disclosure Information.

Further Information

If you are successful in obtaining a conditional offer of employment (or have been accepted as a volunteer), you will be sent further information on the Disclosure process including guidance on completion of the Disclosure Application Form. Disclosures for employment will be funded by the Council and Disclosures for Volunteers are free of charge.

Further information on the DBS and the Disclosure process including the DBS Code of Practice can be obtained by visiting the web site: www.homeoffice.gov.uk/dbs or by calling 0870 90 90 844.

Further information on the Council's Policy on the Recruitment of Ex-Offenders and the Code of Practice on the Use of Disclosure Information can be obtained by contacting Human Resources on (01273) 292313.
